

What is Homebound Delivery Service?

The Fond du Lac Public Library coordinates free library delivery service to Fond du Lac residents who are unable to visit the library due to physical limitations.

Homebound residents are matched with a volunteer by the library's program coordinator.

Homebound persons can select the library materials they want or get help selecting from their volunteer or library staff.

Deliveries are made once or twice a month.

Who is eligible for delivery?

- Homebound residents of the city of Fond du Lac and its outlying areas
- Persons living in assisted/extended care facilities
- Persons who temporarily are homebound due to accident or illness

What materials are available?

All library materials are available to homebound persons, including large and regular print fiction and nonfiction books, books on CD, DVDs, music CDs, magazines and more.

How do I register?

- Fill out the application form & return to the Main Desk
- The Homebound Delivery Coordinator will contact you to match you with a volunteer
